

More good news for Blade Farming beef producers

Beef farmers signing up to new contracts for the Blade Aberdeen Angus scheme area now able to cash in on the success of the scheme by locking into a Forward price contract which offers a price of +25 p/Kg over the SCFF base price. This price will add approximately £70 to the average Angus carcass.

The Forward price contracts are now also available for Suckler bred cattle.

In addition to the good news for Aberdeen Angus producers, Blade have improved the Pain and Gain contract price. The midpoint price for these contracts has now increased to £3.05 /Kg dwt. Pain & Gain contracts have traditionally been used for H/Friesian bulls, but they can be adapted for any type of cattle.
